A BRIEF HISTORY OF POLITICAL CAMPAIGN ITEMS

Presidential political campaign items have been in use since the early 1800's. The early items include metal tokens, clothing buttons, cloth flags, and snuff boxes. Also china plates, walking canes, paper lanterns and drinking glasses were just a few of the more common items introduced into these early campaigns.

Beginning with the 1856 presidential campaigns and the advent of the advancement in photography, ferrotype and cardboard photos, both attached to metal pin backs with the images of the candidates were introduced into widespread use. These were used in all national presidential campaigns until 1896 with the introduction of the modern day celluloid campaign button.

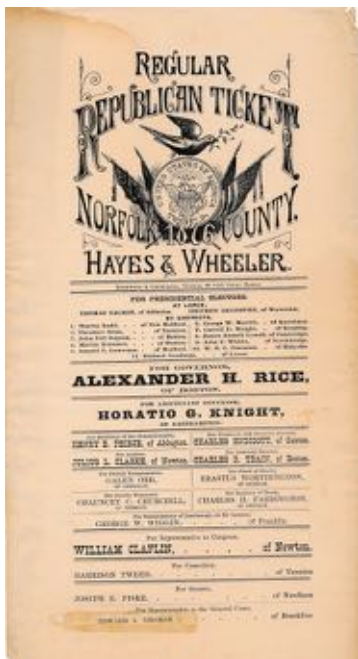

Abraham Lincoln & Hannibal Hamlin

Note that all of the above items described were used only in presidential campaigns. Lesser offices such as governor, US Congress, mayor, etc. did not see any use of this type material. The first use of material to promote lower offices were paper ballots beginning around 1840. Paper ballots were usually issued by the party listing a slate of candidates on inexpensive paper for the voter to take with them to the voting booth and deposit therein casting their vote. These were in wide distribution for presidential campaigns as early as 1824 and in some instances in later years would include governor, lieutenant governor and various other offices. As time went on paper ballots were produced for a slate of candidates by the party in individual states during non-presidential years.

Around this same period broadsides were introduced in the campaigns. These were the early forms of what later would become the campaign poster. These early broadsides were usually printed on newsprint or very inexpensive paper. They were widely distributed as the cost was minimal and pasted on the sides of buildings, nailed to trees, and generally placed wherever they could draw the attention of the voting public to the candidate.

For the period from 1840 till 1895 one of the most popular forms of campaign items was the political ribbon. The early ribbons were produced for presidential campaigns but beginning around 1860 these ribbons could also include candidates running for governor on the same ribbon that promoted the presidential and vice presidential nominees of a given party. Ribbons also began appearing promoting only the gubernatorial candidate and in some instances the lieutenant governor. These early textiles could be very plain or in many instances include images of the candidate along with patriotic symbols of the country, political party and various other graphics from their state or region.

The first ribbons were almost all silk and printed in black and white. As time went on color was introduced in not only the wording and graphics but the ribbons themselves were produced in a variety of colors. Again with the advent of the campaign button in 1895 ribbons began seeing their decline. By the 1920's very few campaign ribbons were being produced.

Millard Fillmore & Andrew Donelson

American (Know-Nothing) Party

Beginning in 1900 a new form of campaign item was introduced to the voting public: the political postcard. Postcards had been in use in America as early as 1873 but became very popular in 1898. Until that year the Federal Post Office was the only establishment allowed to print postcards. Once this restriction was lifted a huge outpouring of commercial postcards flooded the market. Postcards became the main form of communication between the masses as the telephone was in its infancy and just beginning to have widespread use.

William Jennings Bryan & John Kern
1908 President & VP postcard - Democratic Party

This postcard craze continued until after World War I but resulted in the largest output of political postcards and has not been duplicated since. The presidential political campaigns of 1900 through 1916 are the Golden Age for postcard production. Postcards promoting candidates of lower offices did not start to appear until around 1908. Even today most candidates running for president, governor or US Senate produce postcards and still use them as a campaign tool to reach prospective voters.

The modern day celluloid campaign button had its origins in the 1895 gubernatorial campaigns of Ohio, New Jersey, Iowa, Kentucky, Maryland and Massachusetts. These celluloid buttons were produced by Whitehead & Hoag Co of Newark, New Jersey which went on to become the predominant manufacturer of campaign buttons during this early era. The following year, 1896, was a presidential campaign year which witnessed the introduction of celluloid buttons in the campaigns of Republican William McKinley and Democrat William Jennings Bryan. Due to the inexpensive cost to produce these buttons great quantities were manufactured and introduced during this campaign.

By 1920 a new even more inexpensive style of button was introduced; the lithograph tin button. These buttons are stamped and shaped by a die from one large sheet of tin reflecting multiple copies of the same image. In essence it is paint applied to tin with no covering. Due to this process the paint is quite susceptible to scratching in shipping or handling and cannot sustain wear as easily as celluloid buttons. Also due to the production requirements a minimal order of 10,000 buttons is required therein limiting the number of orders placed by this process. Thus the celluloid button of 1895 is still the most popular type in use some 100 plus years later after their introduction.

BROADSIDES

American broadsides were prolific in the 18th and 19th centuries. Printed from single sheets of various sized paper, “broadsides” are what we call today a “poster”. Intense, visually interesting, or designed with clever graphics, broadsides were an important public means of spreading news, and information, within a community.

American broadsides fall under the broader category of ephemera -- printed items created and intended only for temporary, fleeting use. These ephemeral artifacts documented the beliefs, activities, and concerns of a very specific time and place in American history. And then -- more often than not -- they get thrown into the garbage. Their purpose has been served.

American broadsides presented diverse subjects. They could be printed to broadcast a political manifesto, a religious sermon, a military declaration, the news of a great battle, or a Presidential proclamation.

A broadside might advertise a newly-arrived shipment of goods. Urban dwellers could learn of a new production for a play or find out Barnum’s circus was coming in the Fall. Merchants and inventors used broadsides to sell their wares, or to attract investors. Printed cheaply and quickly, broadsides were in the reach of various social class structures in America.

The 18th and 19th century American broadside served as a public notice and announcement.

Nailed up at courthouses, public taverns, and post offices, American broadsides were also hung up in shop windows or handed out in the streets (hence the term handbill). Medical quarantine notices plastered on a wall served as public warnings.

Printed on one side of a sheet of paper, American broadsides attracted attention by being large in size and by using large printing type and/or illustrations. In the 18th century, they were often crude affairs, perhaps illustrated with a simple cut with haphazard letterpress printing.

Printing technologies improved, especially in the second half of the 19th century. The broadside became larger still, more poster-like, and were often printed in color by lithography.

The historical American broadside conveyed its content by means of the printed word. A healthy number of broadsides have been fortunate to survive the passage of time.

Graphically, as visual Americana, American broadsides are emblematic of their times. Consider the plain printing of John Dunlap's 1776 broadside first printing of the Declaration of Independence, or the "wanted poster" for the conspirators who murdered Abraham Lincoln, or Uncle Sam's I Want You poster. All three of these broadsides are iconic and significant to American history and culture.

GENTLEMEN,

ONE of the most important Elections is soon to take place, that can possibly engage the attention of a free people—it is for a Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, & Continental Representatives, these Senators, and Assembly-Men. We have in the Election of last Spring, excited suspicion in favor of both parties in various, passing Amendments to the New Constitution; and we therefore it necessary, at this time, to pay particular attention to the same object.

We are apprehensive that our political opponents will attempt every expedient to divide us, in order to effect their purposes. You have we suppose, before now, been informed of the Candidates by their proposals.

At a late Meeting in this City, of near sixty Members of the Legislature, they have unanimously agreed to recommend GEORGE CLINTON, as Candidate for the Government, and PIERRE VAN CORTLANDT, for Lieutenant-Governor, at the ensuing Election.

A Number of our Friends from several Districts of this County, have effected a Meeting in this City, and unanimously agreed and concluded to hold up the following persons as Candidates:

- GEORGE CLINTON, Governor;
- PIERRE VAN CORTLANDT, Lieutenant-Governor;
- JEREMIAH VAN BENSSELAER, Continental Representative;
- HENRY GOETHOUDT, { Member;
- JOHN LANSING, Jun. { Member;

In which favor we earnestly put to every yeoman. As the Election of the Continental Representative is of the utmost importance, and one at hand, immediate services ought to be made in his behalf.

After the Election of the Continental Representative (which is to be held on the 28th Tuesday of March next) it is proposed to convene a full Meeting of one or more of our Friends from the several Districts in this County, in order to concert the necessary measures to promote the Election of Members of Assembly.

We are, with the greatest respect,

To the Electors of the Southern District of the State of New-York.

FRANCIS AND FRANCIS CLINTON.

THE approaching election of a Chief Magistrate of the State of New-York, is regarded as peculiarly important. For as it respects not only the interests of the State, but also those of the Union, it is the most important of any which have yet taken place.

The People of the United States have been divided into two great parties, the one supporting themselves on the side of Federalism, the other on the side of Liberty. The former have long been the adherents of the British Government, and the latter of the American. The former have been distinguished by the name of Tories, and the latter of Whigs. CRISIS.

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW-YORK.

WAR! WAR! WAR!

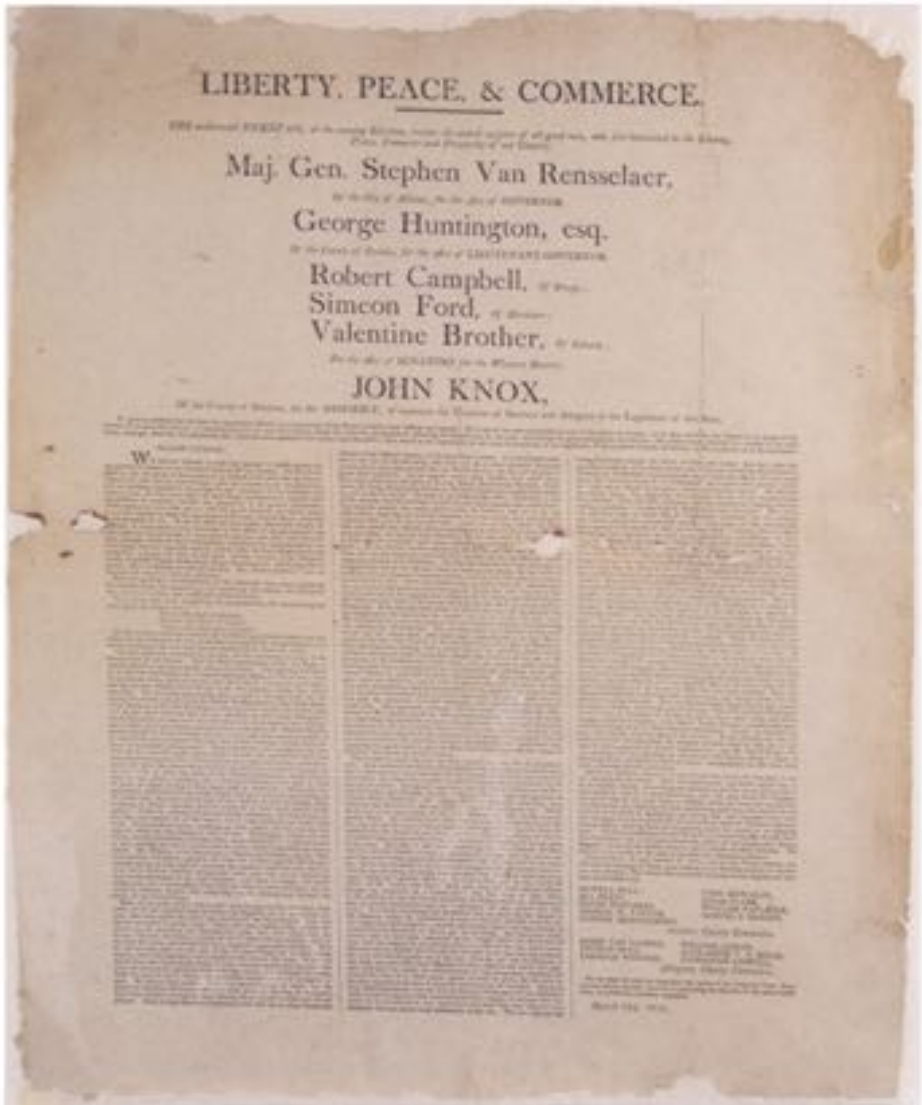

QUIT-RENTS, STAMP ACTS—a common dislike in our country is the Order of the Day—These evils purged our way with Britain; they now purrage a war with France, till never to be divided. Friends, Countrymen and Fellow-Citizens, before the fatal blow is given, and iron laws be enacted, let me call on your minds, but too recently, our Burning Cities, Ravaged Woods and Dismantled Forts, Scattered Inhabitants, deluged Fields, drenched with poisonous dews of fire and iron, Sown by the maddening hand of Britain, and his foreign allies! I repeat it—Swear for a while, and view this bloody scene, through which you have passed, to establish your Freedom and Independence, against British attempts to impose on you Stamp Acts, Tea Duties, and a right to bind you in all cases whatsoever. That these awful consequences of war may not be considered as words of court, on the eve of an election, and unfounded, your Freedom prohibits its approach; and to exert its rights, calls upon Heaven, by a solemn Vow, to favor a looking hand. As you here to have forgot what even ought to be remembered by Columbia's sons and daughters, as a monument of what they once endured for Freedom and Independence, permit me, that I may be thought to write at this awful crisis, to induce in the last trial war with Britain, the Burning of Charlestown, New-England, Fairfield, Norwich, Danbury, Lebanon, Amherst, Warrens-Bath on the Malabar, &c. Bear me witness, ye loving Ghosts of our butchered Daughters, Mothers, and of Warrens-Bath, against the savage tools and rascalous passing the nation's wrath, to further the ungodly intent, to achieve some new and bloodied deed of sacrifice to Britain. Blood, O goddess! blood like that could only quench the thirst of Britain, for daring to oppose her awful imposition on our unoffending country. How would I like, but to prevent the like again, perhaps by relating this tragic scene throughout rebellious may have its fury, and then we shall slings it. Alas! little's parents, where are the bones of your delecting years. Children war, the British dagger points you on Mall's shores, there lay your fate by thousands, their souls too much despoiled by Britain, to inhabit a common grave in their own native land; there you may find some fragments yet remaining of a law—a law, an arm to be relieved from its bondage, to ocean's bottom, by decay, and like a ship parted from its anchors, drifts on those a ground work. Misses' names Bill, Misses' plains present new scenes, not less savage than the former; as if Britain, hated by the Swedes' dislike, they should suggest how to murder Columbia's fate, and with that very government of Britain, the friends of all those evils. Mr. Jay has made a treaty, the consequences of which is, the pacific approaching war with France, the Stamp Act, Quit-Rents, and all the other evils of a public nature that now disturb the land; and for a war with France he is an advocate, as also for the Stamp Act to support it. If you wish again to be your country deluged by fire and sword, and the horrid work of blood and carnage, expiation again upon your defenseless wives and children, vote for Mr. Jay, its advocate; but if you prefer the blessings of peace, vote for Mr. Livingston, who is opposed to War, the Stamp Act, a measure that begins with Britain; and to every other measure which leads to its horrid consequences, in this case is truly anxious, passionate and happy country. To change the measures in our government, which have produced our present and interesting troubles, we shall have a change of men.—Mr. Jay is not worthy of your feelings: it is a former truth, that not many years ago, he declared that he would never hold an office which depended on "the breast of the people." There was, then, Fellow-Citizens, and convince him that you can believe that word which he has admitted to depict, upon a better man than himself—a man who neither despises your opinions, nor is so ready to your political liberties—and such a man is ROBERT P. LIVINGSTON.

NO WAR! NO BLOODSHED!

Schoharie County Convention.

At a very numerous and respectable meeting of the electors of Schoharie, convened pursuant to public notice, at the courthouse, at the town of Schoharie, on the first of February 1820, Henry Hutton, Esq. was called to the chair, and F. Paine Watson, Esq. chosen secretary. The convention being called in as early as possible, the proceedings were commenced in the evening, the object of the meeting was stated, and the following resolutions were proposed and unanimously adopted.

Resolved, That among the rights and privileges of a free and independent people, we esteem that of establishing a public opinion, and freely and lawfully expressing our opinions on public and private concerns, one of the most important and the greatest, and that we view any interference therewith, either directly or indirectly to deprive us of this constitutional privilege, directly to invade a right and the essence of the public sentiment with regard to the government, or to deprive us of the right of suffrage, and indirectly to invade the rights of the people.

Resolved, That as the sovereign power of the state vests in the people, it is the duty of their representatives in senate and assembly to be immediately and directly accountable to the electors, and as well as to the electors, so that the electors may be enabled to see the propriety of continuing their confidence in the electors, and as well as to the electors, so that the electors may be enabled to see the propriety of continuing their confidence in the electors, and as well as to the electors, so that the electors may be enabled to see the propriety of continuing their confidence in the electors.

Resolved, That in reviewing the administration of the late government, we find that the late legislature have not only neglected the duties of their office, but have also neglected the duties of their office, and as well as to the electors, so that the electors may be enabled to see the propriety of continuing their confidence in the electors.

Resolved, That the electors are generally well satisfied with the administration of the late government, and as well as to the electors, so that the electors may be enabled to see the propriety of continuing their confidence in the electors.

Governor Items

New York Governor Political Campaign Items

The images in this reference are chronological by campaign date beginning with the George Clinton paper broadside of 1789 through the Charles J. "Joe" Hynes campaign of 1998. All items are numbered and are shown as well with their descriptions in the alphabetical index at the end of the book. The index reflects the candidate's last name, first name, party affiliation, year of election, as well as the election result. W = won, GE = ran in general election, P = ran in the primary, JP = ran in the jungle primary, H = hopeful, and C = participated in the party convention.

New York is one of the most prolific states when it comes to political campaign items. The New York governor reference features over 1,200 items.

Almost every type of campaign item is reflected in this reference. Ribbons, buttons both celluloid and lithograph, postcards, card stock hangouts, booklets, brochures, window stickers, poster, blotters, paper ballots, flashers, bumper stickers, metal lapel pins, matchbooks, campaign letterhead, palm cards, fans, stamps, etc.

[From THE PRESS.]

Edward Jones

The greatest aid for six years Lieutenant-Governor of this State of New York, but better known in a business way all over the world as was born in Union, N. Y., June 24, 1838, brought up in Massachusetts, his early life spent on the farm, where he acquired such habits that he finds recreation from active business and public life in a quiet and comfortable home. He is a devoted family man, and never at home but often at the office. He has given him a wider acquaintance, and his "every day business" has secured him many personal friends that any other public or private citizen in the state. He was one of the early members in New York, and was for ten years an officer and still is an active member of the Union League. He has always been a hard-working man, and has been a prominent figure in the business world and financially, being guided in office by the most careful methods that have distinguished him for integrity and ability, which so inspired the confidence of political opponents that they placed him at the head of the Capital Commission, one of the largest bodies of more than a million of dollars.

Mr. Jones has been a member of the Board of Regents of the State of New York, and has been the recipient of the highest commendation of the President of the United States, and has served through Johnson, and his prompt arrival at Washington served the capital. At the close of the war he established the whom by energy and perseverance has been built up a large and prosperous business. A system of fair dealing has gained universal confidence. General Jones has got the people, and imposing the burden, under great obligations by bringing the price of wool within their reach. The membership of noble established by him is a record of a successful career, and a record of a career that is a record of a career, of which he is President,

JONES OF BINGHAMTON,

Democratic State Platform, 1898.

The following is the platform of the Democratic State Convention, as adopted by and read to the Convention by Hon. R. B. Markworth, of Elmira, Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions:

The Democratic Party of the State of New York is committed to the following principles:

1. It is committed to a policy which will secure the widest extension of our public lands to the benefit of agriculture, and to the benefit of the people of this State and of the United States. It is committed to a policy which will secure the widest extension of our public lands to the benefit of agriculture, and to the benefit of the people of this State and of the United States. It is committed to a policy which will secure the widest extension of our public lands to the benefit of agriculture, and to the benefit of the people of this State and of the United States.

2. When a political reform is shown to be necessary, it is the duty of this party to take prompt and effective action thereon. It is committed to a policy which will secure the widest extension of our public lands to the benefit of agriculture, and to the benefit of the people of this State and of the United States. It is committed to a policy which will secure the widest extension of our public lands to the benefit of agriculture, and to the benefit of the people of this State and of the United States.

3. We pledge our party to the widest extension of our public lands to the benefit of agriculture, and to the benefit of the people of this State and of the United States. It is committed to a policy which will secure the widest extension of our public lands to the benefit of agriculture, and to the benefit of the people of this State and of the United States. It is committed to a policy which will secure the widest extension of our public lands to the benefit of agriculture, and to the benefit of the people of this State and of the United States.

"What, then, is the supreme issue of this campaign? It is not an issue of the Republican record. It is not an issue of Republican principles or of Democratic principles. It is not a partisan issue at all. It is the vital issue of decent government. It is an issue which should array on one side all lovers of truth, of sobriety and of honest reforms, be they Republicans, Democrats or Independents."

SOCIALIST PARTY

STATE PLATFORM

The Socialist Party of the State of New York stands in allegiance to the principles of international Socialism, and inherent for national platform.

1. For the year of 1918, the Socialist Party presents, to all who wish to represent the interests of the working class, the following platform:

2. The Socialist Party can be treated to meet and endorse effective labor legislation at all times when the interests of the workers of this State.

3. The capitalist, who exploits the workers, is the enemy of the people. The Socialist Party must see this machinery of production under the domination of the capitalist class, and the workers, who derive their income from their own labor, must be organized to take control of it. The Socialist Party must see that the workers have the right to organize for their own protection and to demand a 40-hour week and other conditions which will increase the wages under such conditions. The capitalist class of the State must be abolished.

4. The workers of the State must be organized to take control of the means of production and distribution, and to see that the workers have the right to organize for their own protection and to demand a 40-hour week and other conditions which will increase the wages under such conditions. The capitalist class of the State must be abolished.

5. The workers of the State must be organized to take control of the means of production and distribution, and to see that the workers have the right to organize for their own protection and to demand a 40-hour week and other conditions which will increase the wages under such conditions. The capitalist class of the State must be abolished.

WAGE EARNERS THE GREATEST FACTOR.

The wage earners of the State number approximately 10,000,000 men, women and children, including prison women and inmate children under 15 years of age. The industrial working class that comprises the vast majority of the wage earners is the most important factor in the production of the State's goods and services. It is the only class that has no political voice and no political voice. The Socialist Party of the State must see that the workers have the right to organize for their own protection and to demand a 40-hour week and other conditions which will increase the wages under such conditions. The capitalist class of the State must be abolished.

Though a small minority, the capitalists are in gradually complete possession of all government, legislative, executive and judicial, in that they are the primary force for the maintenance and extension of their class interests and class domination. The Socialist Party of the State must see that the workers have the right to organize for their own protection and to demand a 40-hour week and other conditions which will increase the wages under such conditions. The capitalist class of the State must be abolished.

18. Abolition of the death penalty. Criminals to be treated as delinquents and not as enemies of society.

19. Enforcement of legislation prohibiting county and judges to testify in any case in which they have an interest.

20. Abolition of all laws on inheritance dividing the families of the poor, upon the inheritance.

ULTIMATE AIM NOT OVERLOOKED.

While granting these measures for the immediate relief of the working class of the State of New York and plunging itself to plan reformation, the Socialist Party does not forget its ultimate aim—the establishment of the Socialist Republic, with the abolition of the capitalist class and the establishment of an industrial system based upon the collective ownership of the sources and machinery of wealth production, the only source of wealth in which the present evils arising from private ownership of the means of production, the evils which flow from it will temporarily cease.

The Socialist Party of the State must see that the workers have the right to organize for their own protection and to demand a 40-hour week and other conditions which will increase the wages under such conditions. The capitalist class of the State must be abolished.

For this purpose, political and economic education and study of the workers in the industry and community, for the purpose of organizing them to organize, to work, to strike, and to demand a 40-hour week and other conditions which will increase the wages under such conditions. The capitalist class of the State must be abolished.

Vote intelligently for your own interests as workers!

CHARLES S. WHITMAN

WHAT HUGHES THOUGHT OF WHITMAN

In 1907 Governor Hughes appointed Charles S. Whitman, who had been for four years a City Magistrate, to be a Judge of the Court of General Sessions. This Court has the same powers in criminal cases as the Supreme Court of the State of New York, with jurisdiction over all felonies.

Judge Whitman was the only man appointed by Governor Hughes during his entire term of office to a Court having exclusive criminal jurisdiction.

In 1908 Governor Hughes was so well satisfied with the work of Judge Whitman on the bench that he caused him to be appointed a Special Deputy Attorney General to prosecute election frauds.

Whitman was good enough for Governor Hughes. Why did not Governor Glynn follow the recommendation of his own investigator, James W. Osborne, and appoint Whitman a Special Deputy Attorney General?

LABOR ENDORSES LEHMAN
His Public Service Commended by Convention

THIS thirty-ninth Annual Convention of the New York State Federation of Labor on August 14, 1938, adopted by unanimous vote the following resolution reported favorably by the Resolutions Committee:

"WHEREAS Herbert H. Lehman has served the people of this State with ability and conspicuousness for the past four years in the office of Governor; and whereas, in the course of his administration he has demonstrated his high integrity, his high character, his high intelligence, his high courage, his high sense of responsibility, and his high public service; and

"WHEREAS, he has demonstrated the very qualities in an able manner in the capacity of acting governor of our State, proving beyond any question of doubt his superior ability, high integrity and public character, devotion to duty, and high sense of responsibility;

"RESOLVED, That the convention of the New York State Federation of Labor do hereby endorse the candidacy of Herbert H. Lehman for Governor of this State and do hereby urge the members of our party to vote for him and to believe that our rights and the interests of our people are thereby best protected; and that the convention do hereby request the State Committee of our party to support and assist Herbert H. Lehman and to request the members of our party to support him in every possible manner."

Governor Lehman Deserves Distinguished Service Medal of Re-election

THE same qualities that earned a grateful Federal Government its honors upon Colonel Herbert H. Lehman, General Staff, U. S. Army, the Distinguished Service Medal for his services during the World War, in wit, "for exceptionally meritorious and distinguished service, for his large business experience, breadth of vision, and sound judgment" which were of inestimable value in formulating and in supervising the execution of the warlike and peacetime policies of the nation since he was elected to, have been of equal value in formulating and supervising the execution of the laws and policies incident to the administration of the State Government.

Therefore, we, the people of the State of New York and we, its candidates for office, should confer upon him the Distinguished Service Medal of Re-election.

Governor Lehman Says:

"There has been no administration in this State that has been more non-partisan, more non-political than the one I have had the honor of heading during the past two years."

"No man has been appointed head of a department in the State Government except on the basis of merit and service to the State. I have never, in the selection of a department head, inquired or had access to the politics of a man."

"Our relief agencies have been entirely and exclusively removed from political considerations."

"It is here established in this State a purely non-partisan or non-political board of control—the Alcoholic Beverage Control Board."

"The only act I have brought to the consideration of legislation to reach my desk was that of its usefulness to the people of the State."

"I have never forgotten the fact that I went into office as a business man and a business governor."

"If I am returned to office I will not forget those requirements: sound economic business administration and progressive, humane social legislation."

THOMAS E. DEWEY, New York's vigorous young promoter, who was named governor by defeating a twenty-year old alliance between organized crime and corrupt politicians in New York, was born in Owens, Mich., March 24, 1902. His father was a newspaper publisher but Tom Dewey's talents led him to the law and New York City, where he married. He and his wife, who have two young sons to whom they are wrapped up, attend the Episcopal Church. An executive head of the Federal Attorney's office, as Special Rackets Prosecutor and as District Attorney, Dewey since 1951 has freed labor and business from racketeers, smashed criminal empires, jailed rapacious loan sharks and made law enforcement a reality instead of a mockery. Dewey's arduous, strenuous life has been due largely to his admirable ability in getting things done. As fighting promoter, he has brought to the attention of all the people, the law breakers and their "Public Enemy No. 1," more than 1000 racketeers. He has been called "Beloved" by many who have faith in his beliefs, is the ally of the State to provide effective administration of social and economic legislation.

He has given his pledge to provide a go-getting, effective state administration on January 1, 1950.

ELECT THE REPUBLICAN TEAM

FOR GOVERNOR

NELSON A. ROCKEFELLER led the Republic's first term in planning and executing through the dynamic programs that have earned New York State the highest ratings of prosperity and achievement in the country. Governor Rockefeller's special domestic tax plan to reduce income and estate taxes, his public works and harbor and airport expansion programs, his public health and education programs, his tax relief and public housing program, his program for the aged, youth and defense and improved health and medical facilities, services and programs for the handicapped and rights programs are all the result of his leadership.

One of Governor Rockefeller's most significant achievements was the strengthening of New York State's economy through the passage of the Economic Development Corporation Act in 1961. He has also been instrumental in the passage of the State Budget and the State Tax Reform Act in 1962.

FOR U.S. SENATOR

JACOB R. JAVITS has been a leader in the strong fight for peace in this world and for human rights and civil liberties. He has been a member of the House of Representatives since 1951, a member of the United States Senate since 1955. He has sponsored laws to deal with international terrorism, to deal with the problem of the New York State's children of Indian blood, and to deal with the problem of the State's children of Indian blood. He has also been instrumental in the passage of the State Budget and the State Tax Reform Act in 1962.

New Yorkers Need
Rockefeller and Wilson

In 27 years of the Rockefeller-Wilson administration, the Empire State has flourished and remained at the forefront of all the states in the nation. In 1970 the nation was in the midst of the most serious economic crisis since the 1930s and the Rockefeller-Wilson administration proposed a comprehensive program for economic recovery that has already demonstrated deep Administration

GOVERNOR ROCKEFELLER FOR GOVERNOR

ROCKY HAS NEVER LOST AN ELECTION.

NY-806

YOUNG REPUBLICANS FOR THE ROCKEFELLER TEAM

NY-807

Thanks to Governor Rockefeller's leadership, we now have:

- 1479 more state aid for public schools
- 108,000 students in State University compared to 38,000 in 1958
- State aid to the City University of New York increased sixfold
- 182,000 students a year receiving State help for their college tuition
- State services for mentally retarded and normally ill up 66%
- Help for those who cannot afford medical care or for whom a catastrophic illness would mean financial ruin
- First-rate wide-minimum wage law—going to $1.50
- Financing for housing for 50,000 middle income families
- 34,000 housing units for the elderly
- State Bureau of Consumer Frauds and Protection investigated over 10,000 complaints last year
- More comprehensive laws for equal opportunity in the nation
- An all-out attack on narcotics addiction and crime
- Pure Water program to eliminate water pollution in six years
- Most far-reaching program in the nation to control air pollution
- Added over 500,000 acres to the recreational facilities and parks across the State
- Agricultural research funds increased 65%
- 12,000 miles of new or better roads and repaired and improved commuter railroad services and Total employment at an all-time high! $15 billion in new business investments! A 29% increase in per capita income!

KEEP NEW YORK GROWING

WITH THE ROCKEFELLER TEAM

WHAT SOCIALISM MEANS
First, it demands equality there will be no private ownership of the land and the subsistence. When we say that, we are not talking about your lands or your stocks, bonds, or your money, or your gold, or your silver, or your real estate. We are talking about the land, the subsistence -- the means of production and distribution of goods. We say that these means of production and distribution should be owned by a whole community, not by a few individuals.

By the Socialist Labor Party we mean that through our program and our progress there will be a basis of the value of the goods they produce. Instead, under the present system, the value of the goods is not paid for. It is the value of the goods that is paid for. It is the value of the goods that is paid for. It is the value of the goods that is paid for.

The Socialist Labor Party, founded in 1890, is the only party in America to have a constitution which is based on the principles of socialism. It has no other members or candidates other than its own members or candidates.

To some people that means that Howard Samuel is the only candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor of New York who was not hand-picked by big city, old-line leaders. To others what he stands for means the difference from the other gubernatorial candidates:

- ... has established a comprehensive narcotics program that will curb the drug and crime epidemics;
- ... has gained the confidence of the young people of this state by working with them to end the war in Indochina;
- ... brings successful business experience to the business of governing our state;
- ... has called for a humane, vigorous and effective treaty to end the torturous of hostages that exist here;
- ... led a taxpayer' revolt against New York State's out-of-control construction;
- ... has called for the direct election of county teachers and the reopening of our political fields to community participation;
- ... has proposed a broad-scale fiscal program which will save $2 billion for New York without increasing taxes on our poor and middle income citizens or property taxes on small home owners;
- ... would protect automobiles from being sold in this state unless they are equipped with truly effective anti-pollution devices;
- ... would require Qui-Pro-quo in 1964 and Re-election in 1966;
- ... has a deep understanding of both the urban and rural problems of New York State. He is the only New York Governor for Governor;
- ... can ensure Democratic victory in November.

US Senate Items

New York U.S. Senate Political Campaign Items

The images in this reference are chronological by campaign date beginning with the William M. Evarts winning campaign of 1885 through the Hillary Clinton winning campaign of 2006. All items are numbered and shown with the descriptions in the alphabetical index at the end of the book. The index reflects the candidates' last name, first name, party affiliation, year of elections, as well as the election result. W = won, GE = ran in general election, P = ran in the primary, JP = ran in the jungle primary, H = hopeful, and SE = ran in special election.

United States Senators prior to the 17th Amendment to the Constitution of 1912 were elected by state legislators. In most states it took passage by both the House and Senate to elect a U.S. Senator. The 17th Amendment was ratified in 1913 and changed this method to provide for popular elections by the people. Thus U.S. Senators would be elected in the same manner as the U.S. Congress has been since 1789.

New York's first U.S. Senate campaign by popular election was in 1914. Republican James W. Wadsworth, Jr. won over Democrat James W. Gerard.

WORK FOR AND ELECT
ELLA A. BOOLE UNITED STATES SENATOR

The United States Senate consists of 96 members—WHY ALL MEN?

During the next six years (the usual term) old men will rule the welfare of women in industry, in business and profession. They will make laws that will give larger prominence to national legislation than ever before. Conditions and destinies will depend on them.

Mrs. Boole is singularly equipped by education, business and professional training and by her public service to represent these interests with ability and judgment.
The Empire State has been greatly benefited by Senator Boole's example of comprehending the needs of her constituents. Mr. Wadsworth has failed to do so. He has allowed the Government to be run by a few men of the opposite sex of his party. Now having exhausted every effort to get women of the opposite sex having the vote, he is asking the women of his state to vote for him as THEIR REPRESENTATIVE in the United States Senate.

READERS OF THE WOMAN CITIZEN AGREE THAT SENATOR WADSWORTH MUST NOT BE REELECTED. But he will be re-elected unless voters concentrate upon a candidate to defeat him. Ella A. Boole is the logical candidate.

Mrs. Boole is the only candidate for Senator who stands squarely on a platform of law enforcement, and loyalty to the Constitution of the United States, because she is the only one who is for upholding the Prohibition Amendment and the Volstead Law which makes it enforceable. Thus she is the only candidate actively committed to government by the people.

She holds that we should play our part in the brotherhood of the forty-one countries already in the League of Nations; that this can be done without losing our sovereignty, and that it must be done to preserve our honor among nations.

WORK FOR AND ELECT

Ella A. Boole United States Senator

LET'S PUT ROBERT KENNEDY TO WORK FOR NEW YORK

"I have come to understand that the hope President Kennedy kindled is not dead but alive..."

"There were many who felt that the new balance of a whole new way of thinking had been set in motion and that the time had come when we should not only stand up for our own interests but also stand up for the interests of all of us... And this would mean to stand up for the people who have been forgotten and forgotten people... It has come to understand that the hope President Kennedy kindled is not dead but alive... The work will be hard, and because it will be hard it will be important... It will be the only thing that will matter... and I think it will be the best for all of us."

Notes on the Ballot: Listed Below: Check, Mark or "X" in the circle and signed area, by a candidate, elector, or party, for a candidate for a certain office, subject to the rules of the election laws. This is only the information. Check the Name of the Candidate, and insert in the circle.

The only sound vote is worker, small farmer or small business man can cast is against both.

The most effective vote you can cast — the vote with the most clout — is a vote for the Communist candidates for President and Vice President, Gus Hall and Jarvis Tyner.

These proposals are only proposals. It is up to you to support the candidates who support them. The candidates

1. Slash the bloated military budget by 80%.
2. For jobs — cut the work week by law to 20 hours without any cut in take-home pay.
3. End all cold war policies.
4. Independence for Puerto Rico.
5. Outlaw racism, make racist acts punishable crimes.
6. Guarantee a secure future for our youth.
7. End discrimination and establish equality for women in social, political and economic life.
8. Guarantee justice and genuine security for our senior citizens.
9. Make the people's health a No. 1 priority; pass a comprehensive National Health Act.
10. Abolish all anti-democratic and repressive laws. Padlock the CIA and FBI. Defeat the S. 1 bill, a part in the Bill of Rights.

Don't vote for either party — Party in Control. Don't vote for the lesser evil, vote for the greater good. Vote Independent, Vote Communist, Vote for Gus Hall and Jarvis Tyner.

Hillary Clinton has worked for children and families for 30 years. She brought her commitment to the White House, where she led the fight for affordable health insurance for children of working families, expanded child care and after school programs, made adoption easier and increased support for children and families in the adoption and foster care systems. Hillary Clinton works for children and families by working for child care, education and expanding health care. She has been instrumental in the passage of the Child Care and Development Fund, the largest federal investment in child care since the 1980s. She has also worked to expand the nation's public schools, increase teacher pay and improve teacher training, and to increase the number of public school teachers. She has also worked to increase the number of public school teachers who are women, and to increase the number of public school teachers who are people of color. She has also worked to increase the number of public school teachers who are people of color who are women. She has also worked to increase the number of public school teachers who are people of color who are women. A reference work of this scope could not be produced without the assistance of many people. This is the ninth reference book in this series of state governors and U.S. Senators campaign material. Texas, Illinois, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, California, Ohio, Louisiana/Mississippi, and Idaho/Montana/North Dakota/South Dakota/Wyoming have been published beginning in 2018.

The previous eight books with the exception of Ohio primarily utilized the material from my own collection which was assembled over a fifty year period beginning in 1971. Due to the large quantity of campaign material produced for the Ohio campaigns, I made the decision to publish with a co-author, Ira Forman.

New York as well has a large quantity of campaign material. Over twenty-five years ago in 1997, I did a series of articles for the Bandwagon, the monthly newspaper for the American Political Items Collectors, APIC. Collectors from across the country sent me images of the “The Best of” campaign buttons and ribbons from their respective states: The Best of Georgia, The Best of Florida, etc. I have incorporated these images into several of the books published in this series as well as this New York reference. Many of the items shown in the Addendum section are from this project.

Two collectors, Bill Winnewisser and Christopher D. Olmstead, provided images from that project which otherwise would not have been included in this reference. They are to be thanked for their contribution to this work.

As an added bonus and an element that was never expected are the early New York broadsides reflected at the beginning of the governor section. These broadsides are all the property of the Albany Institute of History and Art in Albany, New York. As far as is known, images of these broadsides have never been published. Most date from 1789 to 1820.

Fellow collector and friend Tom Keefe, attorney and judge from Albany, New York is to be thanked for working with the Albany Institute of History and Art in securing the use of these broadside images. Tom, an avid political campaign items collector for over fifty years, also provided many of the images from his own collection for this reference. Through his connection with the Albany Institute of History and Art as a volunteer worker and fund contributor, he was able to secure these images which otherwise would not have been possible. It was a real pleasure working with him to bring this publication to print. Tom also mentioned I contact Brian Fessler, another New York collector. Brian's specialty is Nelson Rockefeller and Brian graciously provided images of his collection to make the Rockefeller section even more complete.

Again, as they have from the earlier 8 volumes, the two Texas sisters Sarah and Mary O'Pella have been helping me navigate the publishing world. Sarah for all of her computer skills formatting all the pages and sending the completed book to the printer. Mary is the artist and designed the front and back covers as well as some of the layouts. It has been a real treat working with them both and a special thanks for all of their input.

This book would not have been possible to publish without the assistance of the Frisco Public Library in Frisco Texas and their printing group Trail Blazer Press. Adam Lamprecht, senior librarian with the Trail Blazer Press was a pleasure to work with to bring these books to their final publication and a special thank you is extended.

About the Author

David Quintin is a lifetime collector of political campaign memorabilia. His focus for the last forty-five years has been political items used in the campaigns for United States Senators and governors for all fifty states.

He is a member of the American Political Items Collectors, APIC, and currently the Locals editor of the organizations publication, The Keynoter.

Information for the APIC is available on the organizations website at APIC.US. David Quintin can be reached at DQTEXAS@AOL.COM
